Elders child of (1292) Calvin

b. Dec.16,1808 at Camillus,Onondaga Co.,N.Y.

d. Oct.5,1861 of apoplexy at Green Oak,Livingston Co.,Mich.

(some say "Oak Grove")

Was brought up on a farm but managed to secure a good academic education & afterwards studied law with James R. Lawrence of Syracuse,N.Y. In 1833 he moved to Green Oak, Livingston Co.,Mich.,where he cleared & cultivated a farm & had some local practice in law at the same time. He was postmaster of the town & justice of the peace & was the first judge of probate elected in the county.

When Michigan became a State he was elected to the legislature & was four times re-elected,being Speaker of the House for three terms.

In 1846 he was elected on the democratic ticket to Congress & was the only practical farmer in that body.

In 1848 was re-elected & in the contest on the slavery question he opposed the extension of slavery into the territories & voted & worked for the Wilmot proviso. His record on this subject ultimately separated him from his party but materially helped his future success.

Although democracy had once committed itself in Michigan to the support of essentially the same principles that Mr. Bingham advocated,it yielded to the claims of the slave power & Mr. Bingham stood alone among the representatives from Michigan in Congress,in his vote & work on this subject. It was this work in Congress more than any thing else that gave him first the Free Democratic & afterwards the Republican nomination for Governor in 1854.

He was twice elected Governor. He was largely instrumental in securing the establishment of the Agricultural College at Lansing,Mich.

In 1859 he was elected U.S.Senator but served only two years.

In Oct.,1861 he was attacked with apoplexy & died suddenly at his home in Green Oak,sincerely mourned by the people of the whole State.

As mentioned under the heading of John Clara Bingham(3401) Elisha(33510) with his wife & one child & accompanied by his brother William, went over into Southern Canada in 1811. When the war of 1812 broke out, he left his family & property & "slipped over to Vermont". His wife & another woman took their horse & "cutter"(a kind of sleigh) & with the children reached the U.S. later in safety. (letter of G.W.Torhans, Garden City, Kans., Oct.9, 1904)

There seems to be at present no further record of the movements of this Elisha & his family. Of their 10 children only two were sons.

Notes by F.F.Bingham(33,453,481) of Pensacola, Fla.

I can give an illustration of the uncertainty of this kind of research. My father's recollection was that this William Bingham(33511) was b. Apl.4,1789 at "Malone,N.H.". Then Michigan relatives made it Apl.4,1790 at "Marlow,N.H.". This eventually proved to be correct. Shortly after getting the Michigan information, however, I learned of a Bible that a son of this William Bingham(33511) had owned, containing a family record; & then in possession of a grandson of this said William, namely Benjamin Thomas Bingham(3,345,391) of Chicago, Ille. My brother Amos Reed Bingham, Jr.(33,453,482) made a copy of this record which showed this William's(33511) birth, apparently in his own handwriting as Apl.4,1780

It took a great deal of correspondence to straighten this out which was necessary before the Marlow investigations could be of any use.

There is a discrepancy of one year in the date of his death but this is immaterial.

This William(33511) was a millwright & so skillful that he could make treenails on a stone without dulling his axe.

In 1811 he went to Canada with his older brother Elisha(33510), who was accompanied by his wife & one child. They settled on land that, tradition says, was bought for them by their father. William married there. His wife's father, Hugh Frasier (or Frasier or Frazer or Frazier), was a royalist & tory who had resided in Western New York during the Revolutionary War &, at its close, moved to Nova Scotia (or New Brunswick) rather than remain under the American government. According to our family traditions, he was a first cousin of General Frasier of the British army who was killed at the battle of Stillwater, under Burgoyne.

William's wife Lucretia had a brother, Simon Frasier, after whom she named her third child "William Simon Bingham".

There seems to be no settled spelling of the name Frasier.

This William(33511) was building a Mill under contract when the war of 1812 broke out. He was drafted into the Canadian militia, from which he deserted at the first opportunity & returned to the U.S., leaving his wife & child, Caroline Charity(334590), named for her grandmother, in Canada. They followed about a year later, very likely coming with Mrs. Elisha Bingham (his brother) & her children. This William & his family then remained in Vermont for a year or two, very likely at Rockingham, where his father & step-mother were.

Before Aug. 26, 1816 they moved to Canton, N.Y.

Before Aug. 15, 1819 they moved to Spring Creek, Pa.

Before July 4, 1821 " " " " to Bloomfield, Pa.

Before May 17, 1825 " " " " to Busti, N.Y.

Here a comparatively long stop was made, say until after June 24, 1832, this being the date of birth of their youngest child.

Sometime in 1833 the family left Busti, N.Y. & settled in Woodstock, Lenawee Co., Mich. where this William entered land. This land was sold in 1852-3 & the family moved to Ovid township, Branch Co., Mich., where William purchased 160 acres of land.

At the same time, one of his sons, William Simon Bingham, (334592) purchased 80 acres nearby.

William(33511) sold

60 acres to his son-in-law Cary Reed

50 acres to his son Elisha(334593); & the remaining

50 acres he turned over to his son Harvey(334591), in return for which he & his wife were taken care of for the rest of their lives.

This William(33511) was 5 feet, 10.75 inches tall - heavily built - dark eyes & dark hair. My sister & I(33,453,481) take our "auburn" (red) hair from Lucretia Frasier - all of the members of the other intervening generations taking after William(33511), with occasional blue eyes.

The regulation build of our Bingham is heavy & more or less raw-boned, with no surplus flesh. The men 5'10" to 5'11"; & 160 to 180 pounds - the women about 5'4" & 120 to 130 pounds.

F.F.B. says

No special search has been made for information regarding this John. Miss Sarah Clark Bingham (33518) thinks he died young. Record was found at Marlow that on "March 3, 1806, there was intention of marriage between John Bingham, Jr. of Marlow & Miss Juda Brockway of Washington, (Sullivan Co.) N.H." but no record was found of the marriage itself. It would appear that the "1806" is an error as at that time he would have been only about 15 years old.

In 1810 he had a poll tax & owned four acres of pasturage.

In 1811 he had no poll tax but was still taxed on the four acres of land.

The inference from all this is that he died a young man. But my father (3,345,400) had a faint recollection of hearing of an "Aunt Juda". There was also a second cousin of his, Mrs. Sally Weathers, that he thought was one of their children. My father thinks this John Bingham, Jr. was rather "wild". My father wanted to name me John but my grandfather objected, saying that there had been enough "Johns" in the family.

Possibly the J.H. Benton of Washington, who was interested in the descendants of Abisha Bingham (74) might throw light on this John Bingham, Jr.

SUBJECT: IR SPECTRA OF POLYMERIZATION PRODUCTS

Reference is made to the IR spectra of the polymerization products of ethylene and acetylene, prepared under various conditions.

The IR spectra of these polymers show characteristic absorption bands in the region 1600-2000 cm⁻¹, which are attributed to the presence of carbonyl groups. The intensity of these bands varies with the conditions of polymerization, and it is suggested that the presence of carbonyl groups may be due to the oxidation of the polymer chains during the polymerization process.

b. Dec. 17, 1819, in a house standing exactly on the line between Springfield & Rockingham, Windham Co., Vt. - so that it was a matter of conjecture in which town she was born.

Her father John C. was said to have been born on the ocean in 1757. Her grandfather was said to have been a sea captain. (but this is all doubtful - see Auer(390))

Her father John came to Springfield (Vt.) during the Revolution & enlisted in Capt. White's company. Tradition relates that he signed the papers in a hotel standing on the east side of Black River, at the point now called "Goulds Mills". Ira Allen, founder of the Univ. of Vermont & brother of Ethan Allen, was recruiting officer.

History

In July, 1822, graduated from the Military Academy, Norwich, Vt., now Norwich University. Then went to Frederick City, Md., where he had charge of a military scientific school, called "Maryland Military Institute", for several years. In 1829 became principal of a similar school at Oxford, Granville Co., No. Carolina.

He had read law in early life & was licensed but never practised. Preferred to take up civil engineering.

In 1832 built the first railroad in N.C.

In 1833 went to Alabama & became State Engineer & also engineer for several railroad companies. The panic of 1840 made him take up farming.

In 1844 went to Arkansas. In 1847 built a 750-foot bridge over the Washita river at Rockport. It was a lattice girder & 52 feet high. In 1848 was involved in the building of a bridge over the Arkansas river at Little Rock but the scheme failed & he lost much money.

His wife now died & he fell ill & from 1851 to 1855 he travelled, seeking health.

In 1856 he purchased the Athens, Ala. "Herald", a leading paper of No. Alabama. During the presidential canvass of 1856 he worked for Buchanan.

In 1858 there were signs of secession in Alabama & Mr. Bingham, through his paper, opposed this & all the other conspiracies of the Democrats.

When Lincoln was elected he gave up his paper & returned to farming in the suburbs of Athens during the first two years of the war. He contributed nothing to the support of the rebellion & never voted after Alabama seceded. He had an exciting life during the war & many dangerous experiences from his neighbors, owing to his outspoken Unionism. He was nicknamed "Old Torch & Turpentine".

In 1862 he was recommended to Mr. Lincoln for appointment as Military Governor of No. Alabama. Captain Bingham, as he was then called, went to Washington & held an office in the Treasury Dept. Mr. Lincoln was assassinated before the scheme to be made Military Governor could be accomplished, although it seemed certain of success.

He began a Bingham Genealogy & compiled a great mass of notes, which were brought into shape by Walter F. Bingham (442525) & this present compilation is based on the work of both these members of the family.

Place & date of D.H. Bingham's death unknown.

His widow remained in Washington for several years & was employed in the Treasury Dept.

History

Received an academic education & ^{learned} the trade of carpenter & builder. Organized the "Rochester Caunts" & was one of the officers. Remained in Rochester until 21 years old. Then went to Painesville, Ohio for a few months & thence to Milwaukee, Wis. by stage-coach & sailing vessel. Was one of the earliest settlers there. When it became a city he was elected Alderman & was later connected with the City Government in various ways, for years. Before 1861-5 he was a prime mover in & 2nd Lieut. of the "Milwaukee Life Guards" of which (Gen.) John C. Starkweather was commander & (Gen.) Rufus King (father of the novelist Gen. Charles King) was 1st Lieut.

Before 1861-5 he was also prominent in the "Underground railway". Once he personally headed a mob which broke open the jail, rescued a captured slave, drove him 25 miles in his own carriage & got him safe to Canada. For this he was arrested & imprisoned for a short time.

At the outbreak of war in 1861 he was said to have been the first man in the State who enlisted under the 100-day call of Pres. Lincoln; & was made Capt. of Co. "A", 1st Wis. Vol. This reg't was commanded by Starkweather & Lucius Fairchild was capt. of Co. "K" in same reg't.

Was in Gen. Patterson's division at the first battle of Bull Run; & later served out his time. Upon return to Milwaukee he re-enlisted & was Major, Lieut. Col. & Col. of the 1st Wis. Vol. Mustered out Oct. 18, 1864.

He was in the following battles: - Bull Run - Martinsburg - Nashville - Chaplin Hills - Jefferson - Stone River - Du Gap - Chickamauga - Resaca - Dallas - Kenesaw - Peach Tree Creek - Atlanta - Jonesboro - Hoover's Gap - Jones' Ford - Missionary Ridge - Dalton & others.

He was a gallant soldier. Was never wounded. He was a kind & careful commander, beloved by his men.

During Pres. Grant's administration he was U.S. Assessor.

Note

In a letter of Apl.13,1876 to Walter F.Bingham (442525) Gen. J.E.Bingham said that his grandfather was Luther (41409), b. May 20, 1782 at Canterbury, Ct. & this grandfather Luther used to say that his father was Col. Luther (4191).

Gen. J.D.Bingham therefore thinks that his own great grandfather was a Luther, Col. of militia during the Revolutionary war - kept tavern in Canterbury, Conn. - & twice married. Gen. J.D.B. thinks this was the same Luther, son of William, (~~4191~~) (471), who was b. May 16, 1760 & m. Abigail Johnson, May 10, 1786.

A son of Col. Luther (4191) lived at Canton, St. Lawrence Co., N.Y. & some of his descendants lived at Watertown, Jefferson Co., N.Y.

In another letter to Walter F.Bingham (442525), dated May 25, 1876, Gen. J.D.Bingham thinks that the above Col. Luther (4191) who moved from Canterbury, Conn. to Lewis Co., N.Y. was his own great grandfather.

- The above would seem to identify "Col. Luther" as (4191), but
1. I have no record of "tavern" - that is a small matter
 2. I have no record that "Col. Luther" (4191) had a son Luther J. 1782 at Canterbury, Conn. - though there is nothing to prevent this & it would fit into this record perfectly.

Other members of the family say, however, that the Luther corresponding to "Col. Luther" had a last wife named _____? Evans. This will not fit into this record. Because Abigail Johnson did not die until 1848 & at Canton, N.Y. where it seems probable her son lived. But, so far as this record is concerned, _____? Evans could have been a first wife & mother of the Luther born at Canterbury, Conn., in 1782.

Also instead of William (471) as father of Col. Luther (4191), other members of the family say it was Calvin or perhaps Gideon, which will not fit this record.

BUT William (471) was son of Gideon (87).
